COMPLAINT

RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL
2008 FEB 14 A 11:48

Comes Now Complainant, Angela McMillen, and hereby sets forth the following facts in support of her Complaint

- 1 I am a resident of Summit County, Ohio
- 2 On or about December 12, 2007, I received a copy of the attached brochure
- 3 The attached brochure contains several photographs of a candidate for Federal office, namely Hillary Clinton, candidate for President
- 4 The brochure proclaims "stop her laughing" and "we can beat her," which expressly advocates the defeat of a clearly identified candidate
- 5 The brochure does not contain any statement that it was authorized by any particular candidate or political party and therefore represents an "independent expenditure" (See 11 CFR 100 16)
- 6 The brochure purports to have been produced by an entity called the "New Summit Republicans "

20044231292

20044231293

7 There is no entity named the "New Summit Republicans" registered with the Ohio Secretary of State under the following categories

- Corporation
- Limited Liability Company
- Fictitious name
- Nonprofit Corporation
- Candidate Committee
- Political Parties/LCF
- Political Action Committee/PAC
- County Political Party
- Electioneer Communications Entity (ECE)

8 There is no committee named the "New Summit Republicans" registered with the Federal Election Commission

9 The cost to produce and mail the brochure was paid for either by an individual person or a committee of some sort

10 If it was paid for by a committee called the New Summit Republicans, then the New Summit Republicans were required by 11 C F R 104 4 to file a report of the independent expenditure by January 31, 2008

11 No report of an independent expenditure was filed with the FEC on behalf of the New Summit Republicans on or before January 31, 2008

12 If the brochure was paid for by an individual, then the individual has falsely designated the origin of the brochure, in violation of 11 CFR 110 11

13 While the brochure contains a mailing address and world wide web address for the New Summit Republicans, if an individual paid for the brochure, there is no way for a reader to determine who that is, or to confirm whether or not the individual filed independent expenditure reports under 11 CFR 109 10

14 Further, even if the brochure was otherwise appropriate, there is no "disclaimer" as required under the terms of 11 CFR 110 11

WHEREFORE, the attached brochure appears to have violated federal election laws, and the undersigned humbly requests that this Commission investigate and prosecute such violations

Respectfully submitted,

Angela McMillen

Summit County Needs A New GOP Chairman!

Current Republican Chairman Alex Arshinkoff

has been spending too much of the party's money on himself and not enough on winning elections

The Result?

The party is divided, badly in debt, and has a record of 8 wins and 44 losses since 2002

Examples of the chairman's extravagant spending

- Paying over $900/month to lease Arshinkoff's Cadillac Escalade
- Buying Arshinkoff $6,683.97 worth of meals at a posh downtown restaurant in 2006
- Paying for Arshinkoff's $5,007.89 tab at Portage Country Club
- Lavishing well over $600,000 for the county headquarters, payroll, and administrative operations, such as car washes, decorating and custom drapery

That's money that should be spent hosting Democrats and electing Republicans

We need candidates for Central Committee! There is no time commitment to run or serve! Send in this postcard and help make the Summit County Republican Party a winner again! >>>

HOW YOU CAN HELP

Stand with us and join the Republican Central Committee where you can vote to remove Alex Arshinkoff and elect a NEW party chairman!

This committee sets the party's rules and elects the party leaders. We are working to win a majority of that committee so we can

- Elect a NEW party chairman
- Clean up the party's finances
- Recruit qualified candidates to run for office
- Offer more and better services to candidates and officeholders
- Implement tight fiscal controls so donor money isn't squandered
- Involve more people in the party
- WIN ELECTIONS!

"Yes, I want to help make the party a winner again!"

I would like to

- ☐ Join the Republican Central Committee and elect a new chairman
- ☐ Write a letter to the editor or call talk radio
- ☐ Allow my name to be used as a supporter of the effort
- ☐ Contribute to the campaign for a new chairman
(Make checks payable to New Summit Republican Committee)
